ST. KITTS — The Park Hyatt brand will make its Caribbean debut this summer with the opening of Park Hyatt St. Kitts Christophe Harbour, a 126-room resort that spans the secluded beach of Banana Bay.

Upon opening, it will boast three signature restaurants, a destination resort spa and wellness centre, and indoor and outdoor event spaces. All 78 rooms and 48 suites face the sandy beach of Banana Bay and feature private balconies and terraces, local artwork, rain-showers and deep soaking tubs.

The resort will also showcase local and international cuisine through three distinct dining experiences: The Great House, which offers all-day dining and Rum Bar; The Fisherman's Village, serving ocean-to-table lunch and dinner on the water; and The Stone Barn, an adult-only dining experience with an extensive wine list.

Spa-goers can luxuriate at The Sugar Mill Spa & Sanctuary, home to nine treatment rooms, Watsu therapy and a 1,750-square-foot, 24-hour fitness club.

In addition, Park Hyatt St. Kitts Christophe Harbour has developed a series of enriching 'Journeys', which will introduce guests to the history, culture and people of the Federation, which until 2005 still had sugar production as its dominant industry.

"We are honoured to be so warmly welcomed into the St. Kitts & Nevis community and are strongly committed to being a key partner in the growth of the destination," said Julian Moore, General Manager of Park Hyatt St. Kitts.
